Dear

I write in connection with your request for information, dated 13th April 2021 concerning dog thefts.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

- How many dog thefts were reported to the force in the 12 months to March 31 2020, with the figures broken down by month
 - Of those, how many resulted in the dog(s) being found, and how many resulted in a person being charged or summonsed?
- How many dog thefts were reported to the force in the years to March 31 2019, March 31 2018, March 31 2017 and March 31 2016? (just the overall figure please)

Response:

The information that you are requesting is not stored in a way which allows for easy retrieval. Dog Theft is not currently recognised by a specific Home Office crime classification code or category. All thefts of this nature are simply recorded as either 'thefts from the person' or 'other theft' or as a summary offence (meaning it is recorded within a general unclassified category of crime).

Therefore to ascertain the information for the requested time period would require manually searching and reviewing each and every theft to determine if it related to a dog.

INVESTOR IN PEOPLE

Under the circumstances I am absolutely confident that to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply, and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it. Therefore the whole of the request falls under the exemption of section 12 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

However, under our Section 16 duty to provide advice and assistance, I would advise that you could look at our Social Media platforms and local news items, as we have shared press releases in relation to dog thefts.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12: Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

(1) Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me, and been considered in the light of your request, within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely
