Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 17th June 2021 concerning reports of text scams.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

You wrote:

- I would like to know how many people reported phone text scams in the past year.
If this is not possible to retrieve or too much data to go through, I'd like to know the amount of people reported in the past 6 months.
- If possible, I would also like to know the address of each complaint. Just the town name is sufficient if full address cannot be provided.
- If possible, what the phone text scam text was and what scam they were being targeted for.

Our response:

The information that you are requesting for the majority of your request is not stored in a way which permits easy retrieval.

In order for us to locate the number of reports we've received regarding phone text scams within the last 6 months, this would involve us having to manually look through each report made to the Force within that time frame. This is because there is no easy way for us to reliably locate and retrieve information relating to reports of this nature and as a result of this, this would take us well over the allocated time frame we have to complete your request within.

Under the circumstances I am absolutely confident that to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply, and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it.

Ordinarily under our section 16 duty to provide advice and assistance, we would advise you how to refine your request to a more manageable level. However, due to the difficulties outlined above, I cannot see how this can be achieved in this particular case but I have been advised that it may be worth going directly to Action Fraud, to see if they may be able to assist you in any way.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12: Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

- (1) Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Kay Moore

3. Review Procedure
