I write in connection with your request for information, dated 22/8/2021 concerning custody transfers.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by the partnership Sgt for Mental health at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

You wrote:

1. How many patients were transferred from the custody suite at one of your police stations to a psychiatric hospital in:

- a. 2018;
- b. 2019;
- c. 2020?

(This includes patients detained under sections 2, 3 and 136 of the Mental Health Act as well as those going voluntarily to a psychiatric hospital)

2. What was the average length of time for all detainees in police custody prior to being charged or released in:

- a. 2018;
- b. 2019;
- c. 2020?

3. For those patients subsequently transferred to a psychiatric unit, what was the average length of time in police custody in:

- a. 2018;
- b. 2019;
- c. 2020?

4. At the point of transfer from custody to a psychiatric hospital, please state how many patients were charged, bailed or released under investigation in:

- a. 2018;

INVESTOR IN PEOPLE

- b. 2019;
- c. 2020?

5. For those patients subsequently transferred to a psychiatric unit from police custody between January 2020 and December 2020, what was the nature of the offence they had been arrested for?

Response:

The information you have requested is not stored in a manner which allows for easy retrieval.

WP has a search entry on our database which can be used to search for Mental Health Act Assessments (which would potentially provide those who go to a psychiatric hospitals) however this would then involve manually searching all the results to work out average stays etc. This would involve manually searching 500+ custody records to try to identify this information.

Under the circumstances I am absolutely confident that to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply, and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it. Therefore the whole of the request falls under the exemption of section 12 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Ordinarily under our Section 16 duty to provide advice and assistance we would advise you of a way to refine your request to a more manageable level. However, due to the difficulties outlined above I cannot see how this could be achieved in this particular case.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12: Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

(1) Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me, and been considered in the light of your request, within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely
Francesca Smith

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:
Force Disclosure Manager
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Manager within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original Fol request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Manager will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:

Information Commissioner's Office
