Date: 23rd November 2021

Our ref: FOI 2021/ 914

I write in connection with your request for information dated 3rd November concerning crossbows.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered, I am happy to supply the information you have requested.

You wrote:

1. What preventative measures does your force have in respect of purchase and possession of crossbows under the 1987 Act and other weapons act legislation?
2. What measures does your force have in respect of ensuring that crossbows are not taken onto school and educational premises?
3. What engagement does your force have with suppliers of crossbows and ancillary material to ensure compliance with the 1987 Act

Response

1. There are three pieces of legislation which stipulates the legality of possession a crossbow if you are over 18. These can be found under s2 of the Crossbow Act 1987; s139 of the Criminal Justice Act 1988; s1 of the Prevention of Crime Act 1953 and s139 and s139a of the Criminal Justice Act 1988. The Criminal Justice Act covers under s141 the sale of offensive weapons, which includes crossbows.

2. No Information Held.

3. No Information Held.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

INVESTOR IN PEOPLE

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Force Disclosure Decision Maker

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.pnn.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original FoI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:

Information Commissioner's Office
