Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 3rd January 2022 concerning fatal dog attacks.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

Please can you answer the below questions for the following time periods: 2017 (calendar year), 2018 (calendar year), 2019 (calendar year); 2020 (calendar year) and 2021 (1 Jan to 31 Dec).

1) How many fatal dog attacks did your force record over the requested period?

Please break this information down in terms of the age of the victim and the breed/type of dog.

2) For each of the fatal dog attacks recorded in Q1, can you please tell me what offence- if any- the owner of the dog was charged with (for example, but not limited to: owning/being in charge of a dog dangerously out of control) and/or investigated over? Please tell me the reasons (for example, no suspect ID, case not in the public interest etc)- for the relevant cases- as to why a charge was not pursued following an investigation.

3) Can you please tell me if any of the dogs in Q1 had previously been recorded by your police as being involved in another criminal attack (for example, but not limited to: injuring someone, attacks on livestock, being used in a gang to facilitate drug deals and debt collection etc).

Can you break this information down in terms of the type of attack the dog had previously been in, the date of that attack (MM/YYYY) and the outcome/action taken -if any- of that incident the dog was previously involved in.

Our response:

The information that you are requesting for the majority of your request is not stored in a way which permits easy retrieval.

DISABLED

INVESTOR IN PEOPLE

There is no specific crime category for dog attacks in particular that we can easily search on, however, we are able to search on the Home Office code 008/21 'In charge of dog out of control in any place injuring any person or assistance dog' which may bring back some useful data, but in order to eliminate those not relating to a fatal dog attack would involve reading every incident (of which there are 1,436 crimes and 85 occurrences to go through for the time frame requested). Also, as we do not record each individual animal that comes to Police attention on our crime recording system similarly as we do with people, then we would not be able to ascertain whether a dog has been involved in another criminal attack without manually perusing each report that has been made between 2017-2021.

Therefore, under the circumstances I am absolutely confident that to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply, and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it.

Please note, that if one part of the request engages a Section 12 response, then the whole request will engage this exemption. The reason being is due to the fact that locating, retrieving and extracting any further information would only add to the already exceeded time obligations.

Although excess cost removes the forces' obligations under the Freedom of Information Act, as a gesture of goodwill I have supplied information, relative to your request, retrieved or available before it was realised that the fees limit would be exceeded. I trust this is helpful, but it does not affect our legal right to rely on the fees regulations for the remainder of your request. What I am able to provide you are the answers documented below –

There have been no fatal dog attacks on any persons within the time frame requested.

Ordinarily under our section 16 duty to provide advice and assistance, we would advise you how to refine your request to a more manageable level. However, due to the difficulties outlined above, I cannot see how this can be achieved in this particular case.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12: Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

- (1) Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Kay Moore
