Dear ****,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 26th January 2022 concerning Prevent.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

You wrote:

I am seeking information about arrests and criminal convictions of individuals who have previously been referred to the Prevent scheme.

Could you please provide the total number of people who have been referred to the Prevent scheme and then subsequently:

1. Been convicted of a TACT offence (please provide these figures annually, for 2017 through to 2021, or the last year for which you have data)
2. Been convicted of a violent offence, including homicide (please provide these figures annually, for 2017 through to 2021, or the last year for which you have data). In this context I am using the CPS definition of violent crime: <https://www.cps.gov.uk/crime-info/violent-crime>
3. Been convicted of any offence (please provide these figures annually, for 2017 through to 2021, or the last year for which you have data)
4. Been arrested (please provide these figures annually, for 2017 through to 2021, or the last year for which you have data)

Our response:

The information that you are requesting is not stored in a way which permits easy retrieval. Unfortunately, there is no quick way to ascertain this information, because in order for us to determine whether this information is held or not this would mean searching for all referred subjects for the years in which you are requesting, then completing checks across several Police systems on each one. I have been advised this would be lots of hours of work and would undoubtedly go over the 18hrs.

INVESTOR IN PEOPLE

Information relating to the Prevent scheme is available in the public domain and the number of referrals made are only published at national level. (See below)

<https://www.npcc.police.uk/CounterTerrorism/Prevent.aspx>

Individuals referred to and supported through the Prevent Programme, April 2020 to March 2021 - GOV.UK \(www.gov.uk\)

Under the circumstances I am absolutely confident that to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply, and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it.

Ordinarily under our section 16 duty to provide advice and assistance, we would advise you how to refine your request to a more manageable level. However, due to the difficulties outlined above, I cannot see how this can be achieved in this particular case.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12: Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

- (1) Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Disclosure Decision Maker

Wiltshire Police offers a re-examination of your case under its review procedure.

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:
Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.pnn.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original FoI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:
