Dear ****,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 1st February 2022 concerning reported crimes relating to driving in Salisbury.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and having consulted our Business Intelligence Unit I am now able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

Under the Freedom of Information Act I would like to request the following data for the last calendar year for the city of Salisbury:

- 1 - The number of reported crimes relating to dangerous driving.
- 2 - The number of reported crimes related to careless driving.
- 3 - If any, the number of reported crimes which mention "road rage" in the crime report.

Our response:Salisbury CPT

- 1 - The number of reported crimes relating to dangerous driving.

2 Crimes

- 2 - The number of reported crimes related to careless driving.

No crimes

- 3 - If any, the number of reported crimes which mention "road rage" in the crime report.

INVESTOR IN PEOPLE

Please note this has been achieved by running a “wildcard” or “keyword” search for the word “road rage” within the abbreviated summary description of driving related crimes. This is not the whole reported log of an occurrence (which runs into many 1000’s of words), it is the shortened crime summary comprising some 100-200 characters that basically describe an offence. If the term “road rage” is described later in the crime report/log (i.e., not in the abbreviated summary that the business area has searched under), then it will be excluded from the searches that have been completed.

7 Crimes

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Disclosure Decision Maker

Wiltshire Police offers a re-examination of your case under its review procedure.

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.pnn.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original FoI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:
