Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 1st February 2022 concerning border refusal of non-EU citizens.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am now able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

I would like information about (i) the number of and (ii) reason for (checks/arrests regarding) border refusals of non-EU citizens and (iii) procedure/step taken after issue of the charge/check/arrest/refusal in the period of 1 January 2014 until and including 31 December 2021.

I am specifically looking to receive the following data:

Regarding to the documents

- Name of the document;
- Name of authority that issued the document;
- Place of issue;
- Date of issue;
- Reason for issue;
- Procedure/steps taken after issue;

Regarding to the person concerned and/or to whom the document is issued

- Age;
- Nationality;
- Residential address;
- Country from where he/she entered UK or European Union;

Regarding to other details on the document, information regarding

- List(s) of items found on and/or collected;
- Names of papers issued and/or signed;
- Is a picture taken;
- Are fingerprints taken;

INVESTOR IN PEOPLE

- Other notes.

This may include relevant messages sent via tools such as WhatsApp, Slack, Yammer, or Signal.

Our response:

Wiltshire Police do not carry out border refusals because we do not manage people and goods entering the country. This is carried out by our Border Force, therefore, I would suggest that you refer your request to them and see if they would be able to assist you any further.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Kay Moore
Force Disclosure Decision Maker

Wiltshire Police offers a re-examination of your case under its review procedure.

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:
Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original Fol request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:
