I write in connection with your request for information dated 4th February domestic violence and disabled victims. .

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply all the information you have requested.

You wrote:

Could you please supply me with the following information concerning the number of reports of domestic abuse and violence against disabled people, as outlined below.

- The number of domestic abuse related incidents and crimes suffered by disabled victims reported to you in Wiltshire, year by year from 1 January 2017 to 31 December 2021.
- The number of prosecutions for domestic abuse related crimes suffered by disabled victims that resulted in convictions in Wiltshire, year by year from 1 January 2017 to 31 December 2021.
- The number of domestic abuse related incidents and crimes reported to you in Wiltshire, year by year from 1 January 2017 to 31 December 2021.
- The number of prosecutions for domestic abuse related incidents and crimes that resulted in convictions in Wiltshire, year by year from 1 January 2017 to 31 December 2021.

Our response:

The information that you are requesting is not stored in a way which permits easy retrieval. Wiltshire Police currently do not have the capability within our systems to immediately identify if the victim is disabled. This is because there is no mandatory searchable field which we can extract it. The only way we would be able to obtain this information, would be to manually sift through every domestic log and interrogate the individual for mentions of disability.

Under the circumstances I am absolutely confident that to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply, and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it.

However under our s16 obligation to help, we have provided you what we can before the cost limit was reached. Please find below:-

Q3:

Reported.Year	Crimes	Non Crime Incidents
2017	5582	5423
2018	6213	6110
2019	6665	6502
2020	7313	7032
2021	7265	6971

Please note we do not hold prosecution date. It may be fruitful to put a FOI into the CPS who will likely hold this data.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12: Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

- (1) Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Disclosure Decision Maker

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.pnn.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original FoI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:
