Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 3rd February 2022 concerning crimes that have taken place at pharmacies or chemists.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

You wrote:

I would like to request some information relating to crimes committed at pharmacies in the Wiltshire area under the Freedom of Information Act. Please can you supply the following information:

- 1) The total number of crimes that occurred at premises registered as a pharmacy (which may be termed as a "chemist" in location codes) between January 1 and December 31 2021
- 2) How many assaults or violent crimes including arson were committed at a registered pharmacy between January 1 and December 31 2021?
- 3) Please can you supply details of the incidents described in points 1 and 2, including:
 - a) If suspects were believed to be armed (and details of suspected weapons, e.g. knife, firearm)
 - b) whether anyone was hurt
 - c) the number of people proceeded against in relation to these incidents, and the type of proceeding and outcome that took place (charge, caution, etc).

I would also be interested in any information held by your organisation regarding my request, including a breakdown of the number of different types of crime that occurred at a registered pharmacy between January 1 and December 31, 2021. I understand that I do not have to specify particular files or documents and that it is the department's responsibility to provide the information that I require.

Our response:

The information that you are requesting is not stored in a way which permits easy retrieval. We currently do not have the capability within our systems to flag for information relating to pharmacies or chemists specifically, which can be analysed in a quick and reliable manner. This is because there are no specific markers for chemists or pharmacies that we can easily search on. Therefore, in order to ascertain the information requested, this would only be possible by searching through every summary and/or address detail (if we have it) to determine if a crime took place at a pharmacy or chemist, and as a result, this would take us well over the allocated time frame we have to complete your request within and is therefore, exempt from disclosure.

Under the circumstances I am absolutely confident that to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply, and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it.

Please note, that if one part of the request engages a Section 12 response, the whole request will engage a Section 12 response. The reason being is due to the fact that locating, retrieving and extracting any further information would only add to the already exceeded time obligations.

Ordinarily under our section 16 duty to provide advice and assistance, we would advise you how to refine your request to a more manageable level. However, due to the difficulties outlined above, I cannot see how this can be achieved in this particular case.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12: Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

- (1) Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Kay Moore
