The PCC has recently sought to develop the land adjacent to Parkfields and Quakers Rd. I would like to know how much this project has cost the PCC to date and what are the projected costs to the public for this proposed development.

Response

Since February 2020, the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner has expended £223,303.77 in costs associated with progressing Outline Planning Consent on land surplus to operational policing requirements. These costs include professional and technical advice and the cost of the surveys requested to be submitted as part of the planning application. Professional advice has provided assurance that the cost associated with obtaining outline planning consent represents the best interest of public resources. Future expenditure will be associated with the cost of progressing planning processes.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Force Disclosure Decision Maker
