Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 08/04/2022 concerning child sexual offences abroad.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

1. How many investigations has your force carried out into offences committed abroad under Section 72 of the Sexual Offences Act 2003 in each of the calendar years 2018, 2019, 2020, 2021 and 2022 to date
2. How many of these investigations involved offences allegedly taking place in The Gambia?
3. How many of these investigations involving offences allegedly taking place in The Gambia resulted in:
 - a.) A referral to the Crown Prosecution Service
 - b.) A charge
 - c.) A conviction

Response

Please be aware of the following caveats:

To be clear, on question 1 answered using Crime Group – Sexual Offences and have only selected crimes not incidents to highlight where an investigation would take place.

Question 1:

Reported.Year	Crimes
2018	1720
2019	1530
2020	1452
2021	1682
2022	458

Questions 2 and 3:

Please be aware of the following caveats:

For Q2 & Q3, searched using “occurrence address” but there are no reported crimes where this address is The Gambia.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely

Force Disclosure Decision Maker

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:
Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original FoI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal.
