Dear XXXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 17th May 2022, concerning sensitive posts held by Officers without full vetting clearance for the role.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by the Personnel Security Vetting Unit at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

In the calendar years 2016 to 2021 (inclusive), how many times did a police officer hold a sensitive post – such as child protection, major crime investigation, and informant handling – without being cleared to the level of security vetting needed.

Our response

Our 'at risk' register only goes as far back as 2019. In this time, there were 7 'at risk' requests.

Please note

The 'at risk' register was a list of requests from Line Managers / Recruitment for people to start in roles with no or part clearances. For example, if an individual was moving from a Management Vetting (MV) role into a MV/SC (Security Clearance) role, their Line Manager would send over a rationale for an 'at risk' decision to be made as to whether the individual can start in the role prior to the correct clearance being given.

This is no longer the process we follow. If someone is required in post, where we would have previously made an 'at risk' decision, their rationale will be prioritised over all other work going into the PSVU and will be processed the same day.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely

Abigail Standidge

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original Fol request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
