Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 24th May 2022 concerning deletions from PNC.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and after having consulted the Records Management Department – I am now able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

1. Please provide the number of applications you received in the last financial year from or on behalf of individuals seeking to have the information you hold on them deleted from the PNC.
2. Please provide the number of these requests you (i) refused; (ii) agreed to in part or (iii) agreed to in full.
3. Please also specify how many of the applicants already had either their DNA or fingerprints deleted in accordance with the provisions of the Protection of Freedoms Act 2012 at the time their application was received.

Our response:

1. 15.
2. 8 refused, 6 agreed and 1 is currently suspended due to ongoing complaint matters.
3. We do not keep a record of this precise detail, so it is hard to be exact, but of the 15 applications it appears that 6 of the applicants may have already had their biometrics deleted in accordance with Protection of Freedoms Act 2012.

INVESTOR IN PEOPLE

If an individual has requested that a record is deleted from PNC, our standard process is that we direct them to apply for this via ACRO. Therefore, the figures provided above only refer to applications the force have received from ACRO.

There are some cases where an individual may request for a local record to be deleted from our crime recording system(s) or for a PNC record to be corrected or amended due to inaccuracies, and in these circumstances where relevant and appropriate, we will then also delete the associated PNC record as well. However, as these applications are not initially asking for a PNC record to be deleted as per your request above, these figures have therefore not been included.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Kay Moore

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:
Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original FoI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:
