Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 18th July 2022 concerning fines issued to drivers caught using a mobile phone whilst driving.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

You wrote:

- The total number of drivers caught (issued a penalty) using a mobile phone while driving, broken down by month for the years 2019, 2020, 2021 and 2022 to date.
- The total number of drivers caught (issued a penalty) using a sat nav or other device (excluding mobile phones) while driving, broken down by month for the years 2019, 2020, 2021 and 2022 to date.

Our response:

The information that you are requesting (for question 2 in particular) is not stored in a way which permits easy retrieval. This is because drivers caught using any other device such as a sat nav whilst driving would come under the same offence code as using a mobile phone whilst driving, therefore, in order for us to split the figures by mobile phones and any other devices, this would involve us having to manually review all Court files relating to penalties that have been issued over the time frame requested.

Therefore, under the circumstances I am absolutely confident that to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply, and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it.

INVESTOR IN PEOPLE

Please note, that if one part of the request engages a Section 12 response, the whole request will engage a Section 12 response. The reason being is due to the fact that locating, retrieving and extracting any further information would only add to the already exceeded time obligations.

Ordinarily under our Section 16 duty to provide advice and assistance, we would advise you how to refine your request to a more manageable level and in order to do so, I would advise that you re-submit question 1 to us on it's own as we may be able to assist you with this.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12: Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

- (1) Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with Section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Kay Moore
