Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 28th September 2022 concerning whether a property used to be a 'Police house'.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and after having consulted our Facilities & Estates department – I am now able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

Any information or pictures you have on a building that I believe used to be a 'police house'.

The address is XXXX.

I am in the process of purchasing the house and am researching the history.

Our response:

Our Head of Facilities & Estate cannot recall this property being used as a Police house during their employment, but regardless, in accordance with our retention policy, property records are disposed of a year after sale. Therefore, I can confirm that there is no information held about this property.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Proud to serve and protect our communities
