Dear XXXXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 13th October 2022 concerning Cuckooing.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

You wrote:

Please disclose under the FOI Act / EIR:

- 1 The forces definition of cuckooing
- 2 The number of reports of cuckooing in the last five years; 2018, 2019, 2020, 2021, 2022 (to date)
- 3 From the above figures; how many resulted in a conviction
- 4 How many officers are dedicated to cuckooing. Are there dedicated teams?

Our response:

The information that you are requesting for Q2 of your request is not stored in a way which permits easy retrieval.

Wiltshire Police record crimes under specific Home Office Crime Recording Codes. There is no specific HO Code currently in existence today for Cuckooing, nor do we have any current method of tagging crimes on our systems to record whether an occurrence is related to Cuckooing or an individual is involved in it.

INVESTOR IN PEOPLE

As there are no specific tags used on our systems nor a dedicated HO Crime Code, any occurrences of Cuckooing are very difficult to find and any searches need to be undertaken manually.

Offences of Cuckooing could be recorded under any number of Crime Groups on our systems, such as Public Order Offences, Violence Against the Person Offences, Drug Offences, Miscellaneous Crimes Against Society and so on.

In order to ascertain the information you require for Q2 we would have to physically look through each and every crime report that falls into any of the above categories for the time period you require and ascertain whether any information in it that met your criteria.

Given the significant number Offences of that nature that we record in any given calendar year – and in 2021 alone we recorded nearly 23,000 individual crimes under just those 4 named Crime Groups - I am absolutely confident that to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply, and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it.

Please note, that if one part of a request engages a Section 12 response, the whole request will engage a Section 12 response. The reason being is due to the fact that locating, retrieving and extracting any further information would only add to the already exceeded time obligations.

Ordinarily under our section 16 duty to provide advice and assistance, we would advise you how to refine your request to a more manageable level. However, due to the difficulties outlined above, I cannot see how this can be achieved in this particular case.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12: Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

- (1) Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Nick Penny
