Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 9th November 2022 concerning home burglaries attended by Police in September-November 2022.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and after having consulted the Performance Team – I am now able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

1.a) How many home burglaries were reported to your force between 5th September 2022 & 5th October 2022?

b) Of these reported home burglaries, how many were attended by a police officer?

c) Of these reported home burglaries, how many resulted in charges?

2.a) How many home burglaries were reported to your force between 6th October 2022 & 6th November 2022?

b) Of these reported home burglaries, how many were attended by a police officer?

c) Of these reported home burglaries, how many resulted in charges?

Our response:

a.) & b.)

c.) No charges. Please note, that as these home burglaries were reported recently, a number of these reports will still be ongoing, so there could well be charges brought at a later date.

a.) & b.)

Attended	Grand Total
Attended	114
Not attended	12
Grand Total	126

c.) 1 of these reported home burglaries (where officers attended) has resulted in a charge. Again, as per the comment above, as these reports have been made recently, a number of these investigations will still be ongoing, so there could well be further charges made at a later date.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Force Disclosure Decision Maker
