Dear XXXXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 26th December 2022 concerning deaths by Fentanyl or its' analogues.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

You wrote:

Under the Freedom of Information act, please provide all the information you have on the number of deaths and suspected deaths from fentanyl or fentanyl analogues over the last fifteen years.

Our response:

The information that you are requesting is not stored in a way which permits easy retrieval.

Whilst the system(s) we use at Wiltshire Police are very comprehensive and we record data in a number of specific fields which we can use to undertake searches on, we do not specifically have designated fields in which to record the specific means of death of an individual – indeed there is no legal obligation for Wiltshire Police to do so.

In many instances, this information will not even be recorded in the occurrence log of a reported death (sudden or otherwise) as there is no obligation on Wiltshire Police to record this and in many instances it will either not have been recorded at all or not formally known.

Our response in respect of this request is therefore – No Information Held.

INVESTOR IN PEOPLE

Ordinarily under our section 16 duty to provide advice and assistance, we would advise you how to refine your request to a more manageable level. However, due to the difficulties outlined above, I cannot see how this can be achieved in this particular case. However, under our Section 16 duty to provide advice and assistance to an applicant wherever possible, we would suggest that you direct your request to the Wiltshire Coroner's Office directly as they may be better suited to answer your questions.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Nick Penny

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.pnn.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original Fol request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:
