Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 5th April 2023 concerning mobile speed cameras.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by the Community Speed Watch and Roads Policing Departments at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You Wrote:

Current codes of practice for the set up, deployment, and utilization of mobile speed cameras.

Response:

Below are the responses provided by the Roads Policing and Community Speed Watch Departments:

Police Officers who conduct speed checks use home office type approved hand held devices (that can be tripod mounted) and the guidance used follows the most recent publication held on the College of Policing's APP: NPCC-\(2016\)-Speed-Red-light-Enforcement-Technology-Guide-v1-2-1-July2016.pdf

Officers are then trained in force by approved device trainers. The trainers have undertaken a training package following operational competence.

For deployment officers can pick any location to use the devices and essentially conduct an on road dynamic risk assessment, there are guidance's in the APP document to suggest distances from roads/above roads to minimise cosine effects but essentially the deployment is down to the officer.

For the deployment of the civilian speed enforcement team using their mobile cameras:

- They are governed to only operate at sites that are risk assessed and 'built' into all of the systems in the background.
- They are intelligence led. This includes heatmap data from our Community Speed Watch (CSW) teams and speed indicator devices (SID's) which are out in our communities.
- Intelligence from our police officers who can identify areas of concern
- Traffic survey results conducted by Wiltshire Council.
- Support of police Op's like Project Zero every Wednesday in a rotating CPT area.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Wiltshire Police offers a re-examination of your case under its review procedure.

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original Fol request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.
