Our ref FOI 2023/422

Dear ****,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 12th April concerning Abuse of position for sexual gain.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by the Professional Standards Department at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote/ Our Response:

1. How many police officers and staff in your force have been reported for 'abuse of position for sexual gain' from January 2018 to the end of December 2022? 4
2. How many of these reports resulted in any sort of professional disciplinary action of an officer or staff member? 2 were dismissed, 2 = no further action
3. How many of these reported officers/staff were removed from their job for 'abuse of position for sexual gain'? 2 were dismissed, 2 = no further action
4. How many of these reported officers/staff members are still part of your force? 2
5. Please provide a breakdown of the positions of these officers/staff members who have been reported, i.e. how many sergeants, how many constables, etc.

1 x Police Sergeant

2 x Police Constables

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Proud to serve and protect our communities

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original FoI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:
