Ref: FOI 2023/472

Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 24th April 2023 concerning the LEAD (Local Environmental Awareness on Dogs) initiative.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and after having consulted the Dogs Section – I am now able to respond as follows.

You wrote & our response:

- Has your Police Force received any information about the LEAD Initiative?
No.
- Have you ever engaged in-person with someone involved in running the LEAD Initiative to find out more?
No.
- Have you looked into implementing the LEAD Initiative or something similar in your Police Force?
No.
- Why/why not?
We already utilize CPN and ABC's so there is no need.
- Have you introduced the LEAD Initiative or something similar in your Police Force?
As above.
- Why/why not?
As above.
- If you have not:

- Is there anything that would encourage you to consider introducing the LEAD Initiative or something similar in your Police Force?
Not required at this time as we are dealing with what we have with the systems we have in place.
- If you have:
 - Have you seen an improvement in the frequency and seriousness of dangerous dogs incidents handled by your Police Force?
 - What is the process of training staff?
 - Have there been any drawbacks to the LEAD Initiative or similar scheme?
N/A.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Force Disclosure Decision Maker

Wiltshire Police offers a re-examination of your case under its review procedure.

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original FOI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

Proud to serve and protect our communities

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review, they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:
