Dear ***,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 10th May 2023 concerning Female Genital Mutilation.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by the Business Intelligence Unit at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

I would like to request the following data from January 2018 up to and including December 2022, with the data broken down for each calendar year.

1. How many cases of alleged Female Genital Mutilation (FGM) were reported?
2. How many of the cases of alleged FGM were reported by health and social care professionals or teachers (as required by the mandatory reporting duty under section 5B of the 2003 FGM Act)?
3. How many of the cases of alleged FGM were referred to the Crown Prosecution Service (CPS)?
4. How many arrests were made in connection with a case of alleged FGM?
5. How many FGM protection orders have been issued?

Response:

2018: Zero Cases

2019: Zero Cases

2020: Zero Cases

2021: Zero Cases

2022: Zero Cases

Please note such offences are rarely reported to the Police, and reported offences are different to information raised from third parties and/or other statutory agencies which would lead to a multi-agency assessment and/or further safeguarding activity.

Wiltshire Police actively works with partner agencies in respect of offences of honour based violence and is committed to working with all communities to prevent incidents of FGM. Despite the low numbers of offences recorded the Force is constantly looking at improving the confidence of communities and individuals to come forward and report such matters.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered and I apologise for the delay in answering your request.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely

Force Disclosure Decision Maker

Wiltshire Police offers a re-examination of your case under its review procedure.

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original Fol request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:
