Dear ****,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 25th May concerning Officers on Duty.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by the Resource Management Unit at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

1. The total number of response officers on duty in Wiltshire during each night shift for each of the last 28 days on record.
2. The total number of supporting officers (e.g. those in control rooms, custody suites and other facilities) on duty in Wiltshire during each night shift for each of the last 28 days on record.

CLARIFICATION:

Thank you for getting back to me. In order to get an accurate picture of police numbers during the night, and for simplicity, please can we use 22:00 - 06:00 as the definition of 'night shift' for the purposes of this request.

Response:

Please be aware that we have only provided you with a total of 10 days of the 28 requested, 5 Mondays and 4 Fridays and 1 Saturday. This is because the extracting of this data so it is

Proud to serve and protect our communities

suitable for disclosure has already taken several hours to complete and anything over this to complete the whole request for the past 28 days would be burdensome on the Force.

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original Fol request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:
