Dear

I write in connection with your request for information dated 5th June 2023 concerning Pride Month.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by the Media department at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

Please include the following information:

- Whether any events have been organised for Pride month. If so please provide the date, start and end time, and title/topic of the event
- Whether any LGBT themed merchandise has been purchased for Pride month. i.e. since the beginning of the 2023/24 financial year. If so please provide me with information on what has been purchased and the cost
- Whether the organisation has sponsored any Pride events. If so which events and please provide details of the nature of the sponsorship (particularly the financial value)

Response:

There is no information relating to your questions. Whilst there are plans to sponsor Wiltshire and Swindon Pride, this has not yet been finalised. Although merchandise was purchased for Pride Month, this cost came out of the 2022/2023 budget.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Force Disclosure Decision Maker
