Our ref FOI 2023/615

Dear ****,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 12th June concerning Brothels.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by the Business Intelligence Unit and our Intelligence Development Unit at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote/Our Response:

1) The number of brothels known to your police force within the area that it operates. ('brothels' includes massage parlours and any other premises where it is known to police that sex work is undertaken)

The information you have requested is not measurable in that way, we may be able to say how many different brothels we received intelligence on in say the first 6 months of 2023, but we can't just say how many are known right now as they might be here today gone the next and we don't get notification when all of them shut down unless we are the ones that shut them down which does not always happen.

However, please be aware that if a further request is to be submitted as per the above response, that exemptions may still apply.

2) the number of reports received by your police force that relate to brothels for each individual year between 2018 and 2023 (inclusive).
