I write in connection with your request for information dated 6th June 2023 concerning officer sick leave.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and after having consulted with the Business Intelligence Unit – I am now able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

1. How many officers took sick leave for depression, anxiety, stress or post-traumatic stress between April 2022 and March 2023. By this, I mean where any of the terms 'depression', 'anxiety' or 'stress' or 'post-traumatic stress' appear in the description of the officer's illness.

Our response:

Yours sincerely,
