Ref: FOI 2023/695

Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 11th July 2023 concerning vehicle thefts.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

You wrote:

Please see below a new Freedom Of Information Request for the following total figures & breakdowns, looking at car, van, and motorcycle thefts between May 2022 – May 2023:

The number of cars/vans/motorcycles stolen in total The brand of cars/vans/motorcycles (e.g. Range Rover, Ford, Mercedes) The colour of cars/vans/motorcycles (e.g. Red, blue, white, silver) Locations stolen from (town name only) Valuations of the cars/vans/motorcycles at the time Year of cars/vans/motorcycles registration (e.g. 2020)

Our response:

The information that you are requesting for the majority of your request is not stored in a way which permits easy retrieval. This is because whilst we are able to retrieve the number of vehicle thefts there have been that have been reported for the time frame requested, there is no tag within our systems that we can use to easily search on to locate and retrieve a vehicle's make, model, colour and value. This is because this type of detail will usually be contained within the crime report itself and as a result, each report for the time frame requested would need to be manually perused in order to obtain the information you require – of which, there are approximately 580 reports to look through.

Therefore, under the circumstances I am absolutely confident that to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply, and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it.

Please note, that if one part of the request engages a Section 12 response, the whole request will engage a Section 12 response. The reason being is due to the fact that locating, retrieving and extracting any further information would only add to the already exceeded time obligations.

Ordinarily under our Section 16 duty to provide advice and assistance, we would advise you how to refine your request to a more manageable level. However, due to the difficulties outlined above, I cannot see how this can be achieved in this particular case.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12: Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

(1) Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with Section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Force Disclosure Decision Maker
