Ref: FOI 2023/742

I write in connection with your request for information dated 26th July 2023 concerning the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

You wrote:

1. Have your police force used section 60C of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 since it came into force on 28 June 2022?

If the answer is yes, please answer each of the following questions for the period 28 June 2022 to 28 February 2023:

- a. How many times has the Force used section 60C from 28 June 2022 to 28 February 2023?
- b. Were any arrests made when using section 60C? If so, how many arrests in each individual use of section 60C?
- c. Have there been any criminal prosecutions relating to section 60C? If so, how many in total?
- d. How many vehicles have been seized under section 60D in total?
- e. If the original s60C notice was served by the occupier, please indicate who the occupier was, for example the local authority, other public authority, private landowner. Please provide a total for each different type of occupier.
- f. In all instances where section 60C CJPOA were used by your police force, what circumstances and/or behaviours constituted significant damage, significant disruption and/or significant distress, such that the relevant conditions under subsection 4 of section 60C were met?

Our response:

The information that you are requesting for the majority of your request is not stored in a way which permits easy retrieval. This is because this is information we cannot easily search on and therefore, the only way in which we would be able to obtain accurately whether these sections were used, would be to manually peruse every report made within the time frame requested.

Under the circumstances I am absolutely confident that to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply, and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it.

Please note, that if one part of the request engages a Section 12 response, the whole request will engage a Section 12 response. The reason being is due to the fact that locating, retrieving and extracting any further information would only add to the already exceeded time obligations.

Ordinarily under our Section 16 duty to provide advice and assistance, we would advise you how to refine your request to a more manageable level. However, due to the difficulties outlined above, I cannot see how this can be achieved in this particular case.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12: Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

(1) Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with Section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,
Force Disclosure Decision Maker
