Ref: FOI 2023/753

Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 31st July 2023 concerning unaccompanied asylum-seeking children who have been reported missing.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and after having consulted our Missing Persons Co-Ordinator – I am now able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

My request relates to a recent response I received to FOI 2023/646.

The FOI disclosed that Wiltshire Police had recorded 11 incidents where an unaccompanied asylum seeking child (UASC) was reported missing between 1 January 2022 and 21 June 2023.

Please can you provide the following information regarding those reports.

1. The age of the child reported missing
2. The gender of the child reported missing (M/F/Unknown)
3. The outcome of the case (for example, has the child been found, is the child still missing)

Our response:

1. Age 17 – 7
Age 16 – 4
2. Male – 11
3. Located – 11

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original FOI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review, they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:
