Ref: FOI 2023/783

Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 6th August 2023 concerning dog thefts.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

1. Please can you tell me the number of dog thefts reported to your force for each of the following financial years: 2018-19, 2019-2020, 2020-21 , 2021-22 and 2022-23?
2. If possible, please state the three most commonly stolen breeds of dog and the number of each taken?
3. Please can you tell me the number of charges there were for dog thefts brought against people in the years stated above?
4. If possible within the cost limit - how many of the dogs reported stolen in question 1 were found or recovered?

Our response:

The information you are requesting is not stored in a way which permits for easy retrieval. This is because Wiltshire Police does not have a specific crime classification for stolen pets/dogs that can be easily searched on and therefore, these offences are recorded under the code for 'theft'. The code for 'theft' covers a multitude of items that have been reported as stolen, the detail of which would be included within the crime report, Officer and/or victim statements and the free text of the call log etc. As a result, the only way in which we would be able to ascertain the number of dog thefts there have been over the time frame requested accurately, would be to manually peruse each occurrence recorded as 'Theft from the Person' and 'Other Theft' made since 2018 to see if it involved a theft of a dog. Only then once this has been achieved, that we would then be able to attempt to answer the remaining questions posed.

Under the circumstances I am absolutely confident that to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply, and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it.

Please note, that if one part of the request engages a Section 12 response, the whole request will engage a Section 12 response. The reason being is due to the fact that locating, retrieving and extracting any further information would only add to the already exceeded time obligations.

Ordinarily under our Section 16 duty to provide advice and assistance, we would advise you how to refine your request to a more manageable level. However, due to the difficulties outlined above, I cannot see how this can be achieved in this particular case.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12: Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

(1) Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with Section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Force Disclosure Decision Maker
