Ref: FOI 2023/807

Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 11th August 2023 concerning road traffic collisions (RTCs) resulting in death or serious injury.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

You wrote:

In relation to:

- (a) the area under your jurisdiction; and
- (b) the calendar year 2022

please confirm the following information about road traffic collisions (RTCs).

1. How many RTCs have occurred in which someone was killed or seriously injured (KSI)?
2. How many people have been arrested for driving offences in connection with these RTCs?
3. How many of those arrested for these offences have been
 - a) Charged with a driving related offence
 - b) Cautioned for a driving related offence
 - c) Released without charge or caution
4. Of those charged for a driving offence relating to an RTC in which someone was killed or seriously injured, how many were

- a) Granted bail
 - b) Remanded in custody
5. Of those bailed for a driving offence relating to an RTC in which someone was killed or seriously injured, how many had a driving ban imposed as part of their bail conditions?

Our response:

The information that you are requesting for the majority of your request is not stored in a way which permits easy retrieval. This is because, in order to obtain the information requested for questions 2-5, this would involve us having to manually peruse our systems and going into each individual occurrence to see if bail was granted.

Therefore, under the circumstances I am absolutely confident that to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply, and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it.

Please note, that if one part of the request engages a Section 12 response, the whole request will engage a Section 12 response. The reason being is due to the fact that locating, retrieving and extracting any further information would only add to the already exceeded time obligations.

Although excess cost removes the forces' obligations under the Freedom of Information Act, as a gesture of goodwill I have supplied information, relative to your request, retrieved or available before it was realised that the fees limit would be exceeded. I trust this is helpful, but it does not affect our legal right to rely on the fees regulations for the remainder of your request. What I am able to provide you are the answers documented below –

1. How many RTCs have occurred in which someone was killed or seriously injured (KSI)?
There were 22 fatalities (21 collisions) and 222 serious casualties (205 collisions) in the year 2022.

Ordinarily under our Section 16 duty to provide advice and assistance, we would advise you how to refine your request to a more manageable level. However, due to the difficulties outlined above, I cannot see how this can be achieved in this particular case.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12: Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

- (1) Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

Proud to serve and protect our communities

In accordance with Section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Force Disclosure Decision Maker
