Our ref: FOI 2023/875

I write in connection with your request for information dated 05/09/2023 concerning RAAC concrete in police stations.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote and Our response:

1. How many police stations does your force have? The PCC holds 15 sites occupied by policing services
2. Between 1 September 2013 and 1 September 2023, how many police stations has your force been made aware may contain reinforced autoclaved aerated concrete (RAAC), and on what date were concerns first raised? Desktop review undertaken June 2023 assessing construction type and age. Based on this, the assessment ascertained a probability of no RAAC materials.
 - 2A) In how many of these buildings have further investigations into RAAC been carried out? All physical estate is condition surveyed on an annual basis. Surveys are in progress. Surveys will include a physical on site review of the desktop assessment
 - 2B) How many of these buildings are still deemed potentially unsafe? Desktop review undertaken assessing construction type and age revealing the probability of no RAAC materials.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original FoI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:
