Ref: FOI 2023/880

I write in connection with your request for information dated 8th September 2023 concerning Fixed Penalty Notices.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and after having consulted Traffic Team – I am now able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

- 1) The number of FPNs issued for speeding in 2022 - and a breakdown of the this speeding data by licence type (full/provisional), and if possible, age, and gender
- 2) The number of FPNs issued for driving without the correct insurance in 2022 - and a breakdown of the this speeding data by licence type (full/provisional), and if possible, age, and gender
- 3) Both of the above, but for the year 2023 to-date? If this is not possible due to time constraints, then please prioritise 1 and 2 for 2022 data instead.

Our response:

The information that you are requesting for the majority of your request is not stored in a way which permits easy retrieval.

Whilst our Crime Recording system(s) are sophisticated and we have a number of fields in which information pertaining to a crime or incident is recorded (and can be searched), we do not have a specific field in which we record more specific information, such as age, gender and licence type.

The ascertaining of this information would only be possible by physically reviewing and/or reading the Occurrence / Crime Record on our Niche database for the time period you require.

Given the number of individual crime logs that have been recorded for 2022 and 2023 I am absolutely confident that to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply, and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it.

Proud to serve and protect our communities

Ordinarily under our section 16 duty to provide advice and assistance, we would advise you how to refine your request to a more manageable level. However, due to the difficulties outlined above, I cannot see how this can be achieved in this particular case.

Although excess cost removes the forces' obligations under the Freedom of Information Act, as a gesture of goodwill I have supplied information, relative to your request, retrieved or available before it was realised that the fees limit would be exceeded. I trust this is helpful, but it does not affect our legal right to rely on the fees regulations for the remainder of your request.

What I am able to provide you are the answers documented below –

Notice Issued between 01/01/2022 00:00:00 and 01/01/2023 00:00:00

	Number of Notices Issued

Question 2 – Insurnace FPN	430

Notice Issued between 01/01/2023 00:00:00 and 01/09/2023 00:00:00

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12: Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

(1) Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with Section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,
Force Disclosure Decision Maker
