Ref: FOI 2023/1013

I write in connection with your request for information dated 18th October 2023 concerning dog attacks.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and after having consulted our Dog Unit – I am now able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

- The number of dog attacks on a person each month within the last six months, and what the breed of dog was
- The number of fatal dog attacks on a person each month within the last six months, and what the breed of dog was
- The number of dog attacks on another dog each month within the last six months, and what breed of dog the attacker was
- The number of fatal dog attacks on another dog each month within the last six months, and what breed of dog the attacker was
- The number of arrests made over dog attacks and dangerous dogs each month within the last six months, and what breed the dog was
- The number of dogs destroyed after a police incident each month in the last six months, and what breed the dog was

Our response:

The information that you are requesting in Questions 3, 4 and specific dog breeds in Question 1 and 5, is not stored in a way which permits easy retrieval.

Whilst our Crime Recording system(s) are sophisticated and we have a number of fields in which information pertaining to a crime or incident is recorded (and can be searched), we do not have a specific field in which we record crimes by the location information you requested in Questions 3 and 4.

The ascertaining of this information would only be possible by physically reviewing and/or reading the Occurrence / Crime Record on our Niche database for the time period you require.

Under the circumstances I am absolutely confident that to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply, and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it.

Please note, that if one part of the request engages a Section 12 response, the whole request will engage a Section 12 response. The reason being is due to the fact that locating, retrieving and extracting any further information would only add to the already exceeded time obligations.

Although excess cost removes the forces' obligations under the Freedom of Information Act, as a gesture of goodwill I have supplied information, relative to your request, retrieved or available before it was realised that the fees limit would be exceeded. I trust this is helpful, but it does not affect our legal right to rely on the fees regulations for the remainder of your request.

What I am able to provide you are the answers documented below –

Ordinarily under our Section 16 duty to provide advice and assistance, we would advise you how to refine your request in respect of Questions 1, 3, 4 and 5 to a more manageable level. However, due to the difficulties outlined above, I cannot see how this can be achieved.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12: Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

(1) Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with Section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,
Force Disclosure Decision Maker
