Dear XXXXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 24th October 2023 concerning Training on Flags.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and – having consulted our Learning & Development Team - I am now able to respond as follows.

You wrote (and Our Response) :

I am writing to request information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 relating to specialist police officers who have received training on flags.

This relates to this Tweet from the Met Police during the recent pro-Palestine protest in London.

How many police officers in your force are designated as having specialist knowledge of flags?

No information Held

- What training do these specialist officers receive regarding flags? Please provide details on the content and duration of any courses or training programs.

No Information Held

- What is the cost associated with providing this specialist flag training per officer? Please break down costs into categories such as course fees, travel/accommodation expenses etc.

No Information Held

- Do you utilize external providers to deliver this training? If so, please provide the names of the training companies/organisations used and the costs paid to them.

No Information Held

- How many specialist flag officers have you had in the past 5 years?

No Information Held

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Nick Penny

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.pnn.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original FoI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:
