Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information, dated 2nd November 2023 concerning ATMs.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by the Team Performance Department of Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

You Wrote:

1. An overview of the current ATM crime situation in the geographical area of your responsibility.

2. Data on ATM attacks, for the period spanning 2019 to 2022. We require data broken down by:

- Modus operandi employed in these attacks (e.g., explosives, uprooting, others).
- Geographic distribution by location (to enable us to create a geographical incidence map).
- Monthly incident data.
- Economic losses resulting from these attacks, including stolen funds and property damage.
- Classification of explosives used (solid, gas, etc.).
- The status of these crimes (completed or attempted).
- Any additional pertinent information, such as the nationality of suspects, arrest statistics, and behavioral characteristics of offenders, which would greatly contribute to our analysis.

3. Crime prevention:

Proud to serve and protect our communities

- Insights into the crime prevention measures implemented within your country to mitigate physical attacks on ATMs.
- Identification of institutions responsible for monitoring and enforcing these preventative measures.

Response:

The information that you are requesting, specifically ATM thefts, is not stored in a way which allows for easy retrieval and Wiltshire Police does not have the search facility to automatically gather this data. To clarify, our Team Performance Department have stated that as 'ATM theft' is not a crime classification, to ascertain this information for the requested time period would require manually searching and reading each and theft offence individually to see if they related to ATMs. Therefore, the whole of the request should fall under the exemption of section 12 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Ordinarily under our Section 16 obligation to provide advice and assistance, I would advise you of a way in which to refine your request. However, due to the difficulties as outlined above, I cannot think of a way in which this could be achieved.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12: Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit
Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me, and been considered in the light of your request, within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Wiltshire Police offers a re-examination of your case under its review procedure.
