Dear XXXXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 21st November 2023 concerning Speeding Offences.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

You wrote:

Could you please share with me the number of speeding tickets your force issued in 2018, 2019, 2020, 2021, 2022 and 2023 to date (up to the end of October) in the following speed categories:

21-25 mph
26-30 mph
31-35 mph
36-40 mph
41-50 mph
51-60 mph
61-70 mph
71-80mph
81-90mph
91-100 mph
100+ mph

In each speed category could you please also provide the age range of offenders, the median age of offender and the proportion of offenders who are men and women.

And in each year could you also please supply the slowest and fastest single speed for which a ticket was given.

Our response:

The information that you are requesting for the majority of your request (namely information about the tickets issued by the speed categories you require, the age and gender of offenders and fastest/slowest speed recorded for which a ticket was issued) is not stored in a way which permits easy retrieval.

Whilst our crime recording systems are fairly sophisticated and we have a number of designated fields in which we record specific information relevant to a given crime (which we can then theoretically run searches on to find information), we do not have specific fields in which we record any of this specific information.

The ascertaining of this information would only be possible by locating and reading each of the crime reports for these offences, separately making either making a note of information that met your criteria or having to create new information in order to answer your specific questions (see note below).

I have been advised by our Justice Traffic Supervisor that to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply, and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it.

Note

It also needs to be remembered, that there is no obligation on an Authority to physically create information (where none exists today) simply in order to answer an FOI request. The data around age, gender and fastest/slowest speeds would fall into this category as it is not currently held in a usable format which can be used to answer your questions.

Although excess cost removes the forces' obligations under the Freedom of Information Act, as a gesture of goodwill I have supplied information, relative to your request, retrieved or available before it was realised that the fees limit would be exceeded. I trust this is helpful, but it does not affect our legal right to rely on the fees regulations for the remainder of your request. What I am able to provide you are details of the speeding tickets issued since 2018 by offence code, this detail is documented in the tables below.

It should be noted that all crimes recorded by Wiltshire Police and traffic tickets issued are based on agreed Home Office Crime Recording Codes or Offence Codes – these differ from the specific speeding categories you have requested in your question(s).

Ordinarily under our section 16 duty to provide advice and assistance, we would advise you how to refine your request to a more manageable level. However, due to the difficulties outlined above, I cannot see how this can be achieved in this particular case.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12: Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

- (1) Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Nick Penny

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.pnn.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original FoI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
