Ref: FOI 2023/1159

Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 4th December 2023 concerning nitrous oxide and road traffic incidents.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

You wrote:

Over the last four years, please could you provide me with:

- The number of people who have been arrested and/or charged on suspicion of driving a vehicle having inhaled nitrous oxide.
- The number of nitrous oxide cannisters seized by police from vehicles.
- The number of road traffic incidents reported to police in which nitrous oxide has/is suspected to have been involved/inhaled by the driver.
- Of these road traffic incidents, the number which have involved injury or death.

Our response:

The information that you are requesting for the majority of your request is not stored in a way which permits easy retrieval. This is because in order to obtain this information accurately, this would involve having to manually search through each and every report of a road traffic incident as well as drug-related traffic offences over the last 4 years in order to determine whether they related to nitrous oxide. For the majority of this time frame, we do not have an automatic search facility to gather this type of data accurately.

Therefore, under the circumstances I am absolutely confident that to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply, and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it.

Please note, that if one part of the request engages a Section 12 response, the whole request will engage a Section 12 response. The reason being is due to the fact that locating, retrieving and extracting any further information would only add to the already exceeded time obligations.

Ordinarily under our Section 16 duty to provide advice and assistance, we would advise you how to refine your request to a more manageable level. However, due to the difficulties outlined above, I cannot see how this can be achieved in this particular case.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12 – Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

(1) Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with Section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Force Disclosure Decision Maker

Wiltshire Police offers a re-examination of your case under its review procedure.
