Ref: FOI 2023/1178

Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 11th December 2023 concerning abortions.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and after having consulted our Performance Team – I am now able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

Q1. Between 1 January 2021 and 27 November 2023, has your force investigated:

- 014/01 – Administering drugs or using instruments to procure abortion.
- 014/02 – Procuring drugs etc to cause abortion.

Please provide a Yes/No answer

Q2. If the answer to Q1 is “yes”, please provide the total number of times your force has investigated a case of 014/01 – Administering drugs or using instruments to procure abortion or 014/02 – Procuring drugs etc to cause abortion.

Q3. If the answer to Q1 is “yes”, between 1 January 2021 and 27 November 2023, has your force requested a woman hand over data from a menstrual tracking app to aid your investigation?

Q4. If the answer to Q3 is ‘yes’, please will you provide the name of the menstrual tracking apps?

Q5. If the answer to Q1 is “yes”, between 1 January 2021 and 27 November 2023, has your force requested a menstrual tracking app (such as Flo or FEMM) share a woman's data with you to aid your investigation?

Proud to serve and protect our communities

Q6: If the answer to Q5 is "yes", please will you provide the name of the menstrual tracking apps?

Our response:

No – Wiltshire Police have not undertaken any investigations in relation to the information you require within the time frame requested.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Force Disclosure Decision Maker

Wiltshire Police offers a re-examination of your case under its review procedure.

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original FOI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

Proud to serve and protect our communities

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review, they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:
