Dear

I write in connection with your request for information dated 04/01/2024 concerning digital devices awaiting examination.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by South West Police Forensics.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote with Response

1. Please provide the number of digital devices currently awaiting examination by, or for, the force.

Phone Exhibits (Mobile Phones, Tablets and Memory Cards): 172

Computer Exhibits (Computers, Laptops & Hard Drives): 25

2. Please provide a breakdown of the above stating:
 - a. What number are due to be examined internally by the force.
 - b. What number are due to be examined by an external contractor.

Currently all are expected to be examined in house however this changes depending on available budgets as the financial year progresses

3. Please provide the average number of days it is currently taking, for a digital device to be examined.

Proud to serve and protect our communities

It is currently taking an average of 69 days (calendar)

4. Please provide a breakdown of the above stating:
- a. The average number of days it is currently taking, for a device to be examined internally by the force.

As above

- b. The average number of days it is currently taking, for a device to be examined by an external contractor.

Current service level agreement with external service provider is 30 working days (6 weeks) 42 Calendar days

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely

Force Disclosure Decision Maker

Wiltshire Police offers a re-examination of your case under its review procedure.

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original FoI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:
