Dear XXXX ,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 9th February 2024 regarding SEEN Networks.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by Diversity, Equality and Inclusion at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

My enquiry concerns the Police SEEN Network, a "gender critical" staff network claiming members in police forces throughout the UK.

Please provide:

1. Confirmation of whether your force has formally recognised SEEN as a staff network
2. Any documents relating to the granting or refusal of such recognition
3. The approximate number of SEEN members within your force
4. Confirmation of whether SEEN members are permitted to respond to or investigate allegations of transphobic hate crime
5. Copies of any policies relating to the above.

Our response:

Proud to serve and protect our communities

No information held. No SEEN staff network exists.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely
