Dear XXXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 28th February 2024 regarding the cost of actors hired for police training videos.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by learning and development at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

I am writing to make a request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. I seek the following information about expenditures incurred by your police force related to the engagement of actors for the production of police training videos within the past 12 months.

The total amount of money spent on hiring actors for police training videos.

The number of projects/videos for which actors were hired.

A brief description of the procurement process for these actors, including whether this was done through an agency or directly.

Any available breakdown of costs per project/video.

Our response:

We do not hire actors for training videos.

Proud to serve and protect our communities

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely
