Dear XXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 22nd January 2024 regarding mutual aid.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by Force Operations at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

Under the FOI Act I would like to now the number of times your force has requested mutual aid from other police forces during the last 6 months from the date of this request.

Our response:

Between July 2023 and January 2024, the Force has requested Mutual Aid 22 times for various reason.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely
