Ref: FOI 2024/245

Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 27th February 2024 concerning people detained under UK immigration legislation powers.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and after having consulted our Business Intelligence team – I am now able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

How many people detained under UK immigration legislation powers have been held in your force's police cells from 01 January 2022 to 31 January 2024?

Please disaggregate by police station and by length of detention, using the following lengths of detention:

- a. Up to 24 hours
- b. 24-48
- c. 48-72
- d. 72-96
- e. 96 - 120
- f. 120 hours plus

Of those held:

- 1. How many were released without restrictions?
- 2. How many were released on immigration bail?
- 3. How many were transferred to another place of detention?

Our response:

Detention Time	Number of People
----------------	------------------

Proud to serve and protect our communities

Up to 24 hours	154
24 - 48 hours	71
48 - 72 hours	5
72 - 96 hours	1
Grand Total	231

Caveats:

- Arrest date: 1st January 2022 – 31st January 2024.
- All of the people detained were taken to Swindon custody.

In relation to questions 1-3, whilst I can confirm that we do hold information pertaining to the outcomes of these detentions, the information that we hold is very unlikely to be accurate and this is because once those people who have been detained under UK immigrations laws have entered our custody, they are then the responsibility of the UK Border Force who will decide what the outcomes are and due to this, our systems may not necessarily reflect those outcomes accurately.

Therefore, under our Section 16 duty to provide advice and guidance where possible, I would suggest that you request for this information directly from the UK Border Force.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Force Disclosure Decision Maker

Wiltshire Police offers a re-examination of your case under its review procedure.

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original FOI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

Proud to serve and protect our communities

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review, they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:
