Ref: FOI 2024/274

Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 3rd March 2024 concerning Police reports involving bouncers / door staff.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

You wrote:

Could you please supply me with the following information concerning police incidents involving doormen, bouncers, and security staff, as outlined below.

How many calls out to bars and clubs were received between 2019-2024? How many of these were reports against or involving bouncers / doormen? Please can this be categorised into 2019-2020, 2020-2021, 2021-2022, 2022-2023, 2023-2024.

How many police reports have been filed against bouncers / doormen in these time periods?

Could you provide the number of charges filed or legal action taken against the doormen / security staff in 2019-2020, 2020-2021, 2021-2022, 2022-2023, 2023-2024?

Could you provide information regarding the charges filed or legal actions taken against the doormen / security staff in 2019-2020, 2020-2021, 2021-2022, 2022-2023, 2023-2024?

Are there any ongoing training programs/initiatives aimed at preventing misconduct among door/security staff 2019-2020, 2020-2021, 2021-2022, 2022-2023, 2023-2024?

Do you have a procedure to feedback data on incidents to local licensing authorities?

Our response:

The information that you are requesting is not stored in a way which permits easy retrieval. For each of these questions related to bouncers or door staff, we currently do not have the capability within our system(s) to flag information on individuals to determine their occupation which can then be analysed quickly and easily. The ascertaining of this information would only be possible by physically reading every call log and crime report made in relation to each crime class over the time period requested in order to determine if the suspect was in fact a bouncer/door staff.

Under the circumstances I am absolutely confident that to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply, and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it.

Please note, that if one part of the request engages a Section 12 response, the whole request will engage a Section 12 response. The reason being is due to the fact that locating, retrieving and extracting any further information would only add to the already exceeded time obligations.

Ordinarily under our Section 16 duty to provide advice and assistance, we would advise you how to refine your request to a more manageable level. However, due to the difficulties outlined above, I cannot see how this can be achieved in this particular case.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12 – Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

(1) Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with Section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Force Disclosure Decision Maker

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original FOI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.
