Date: 8th April 2024

Ref: FOI 2024/323

I write in connection with your request for information dated 19th March 2024 concerning employee discrimination claims.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am now able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

In each of the past five years, please can you detail:

-The total number of employee discrimination claims which have been settled by your force;

-Separately, please break these down into categories of discrimination types which have been settled by your force. (The nine protected characteristics are: age, gender reassignment; being married or in a civil partnership; being pregnant or on maternity leave; disability; race, including colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin; religion or belief; sex; sexual orientation.);

-For each of the above, please detail the number of these claims, broken down by the nine protected characteristics, which have been settled with an non-disclosure agreement (NDA) in place;

-Further, how much money has been paid in total to settle employee discrimination claims by your force;

-Separately, how much money has been paid to settle employee discrimination claims, broken down into the nine protected characteristics, by your force.

Our response:

Case Type	Claim Type Description	Cost
Employment Tribunal	Sex discrimination	£3,000.00
Employment Tribunal	Sex discrimination	£4,000.00
Employment Tribunal	Race discrimination	£3,500.00

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Wiltshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing to the:

Force Disclosure Unit
Wiltshire Police Headquarters,
London Road, Devizes,
Wiltshire,
SN10 2DN

Email at disclosure@wiltshire.police.uk.

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Force Disclosure Unit within 20 working days of the Force's response to the original FOI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing to include confirmation of the reasons for the review. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker, who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Force Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The Independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

Proud to serve and protect our communities

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision Maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review, they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:
