Date: 10th April 2024

Ref: FOI 2024/384

Dear,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 9th April 2024 concerning medicinal cannabis.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am not obliged to supply the information you have requested.

You wrote:

1. How many arrests have been made by Wiltshire Police for people in possession of/using medical cannabis in the past 12 months?
2. Have officers from Wiltshire Police undergone training around medical cannabis and the law?
3. Are there plans for such training to take place?

Our response:

The information that you are requesting for part of your request (namely question 1) is not stored in a way which permits easy retrieval. This is because there is no easy and reliable way that we can extract the number of arrests that have been made specifically relating to medicinal cannabis. Whilst we can extract the number of arrests that have been made for possession of cannabis; in order to determine if an individual who was arrested for possession of cannabis was in fact later found to be in legitimate possession of medicinal cannabis, this would involve us having to manually trawl through every drugs-related crime report there is over the last 12 months, of which there are hundreds.

Therefore, under the circumstances I am absolutely confident that to locate, retrieve and extract the information you seek would by far exceed the time obligations upon this authority to comply, and in so doing would exceed the fees limits. This is set at £450 calculated at a flat rate of £25 per hour for those work activities comprising of confirming the information is held, locating it, retrieving it and extracting it.

Please note, that if one part of the request engages a Section 12 response, the whole request will engage a Section 12 response. The reason being is due to the fact that locating, retrieving and extracting any further information would only add to the already exceeded time obligations.

Although excess cost removes the forces' obligations under the Freedom of Information Act, as a gesture of goodwill I have supplied information, relative to your request, retrieved or available before it was realised that the fees limit would be exceeded. I trust this is helpful, but it does not affect our legal right to rely on the fees regulations for the remainder of your request. What I am able to provide you are the answers documented below –

2. Have officers from Wiltshire Police undergone training around medical cannabis and the law?

This question has been previously answered and can be found on our website (reference FOI 2023/948 and question 3 relates).

3. Have officers from Wiltshire Police undergone training around medical cannabis and the law?

Please refer to question 2 above.

Ordinarily under our Section 16 duty to provide advice and assistance, we would advise you how to refine your request in respect of question 1 to a more manageable level. However, due to the difficulties outlined above, I cannot see how this can be achieved in this particular case.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the Wiltshire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption applicable to the information requested is:

Section 12 – Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

- (1) Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

In accordance with Section 17 of the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this particular request.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.

Yours sincerely,

Proud to serve and protect our communities
