Ref: FOI 2024/448

I write in connection with your request for information dated 23rd April 2024 concerning Disability Hate Crime.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am now able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

Please could you provide me with the number of disability-related hate crimes reported between 1st January 2020 and 31st December 2023, broken down by the day they were reported.

To be clear, I would like the total number for each day separately, so a sample dataset could have every date in 2020 in the first column and the number of reports made in the second column. If you could provide this in excel, or other spreadsheet, format, that would be great.

Additionally, if possible, could you further break down these numbers into offence type (public order, violence against the person with injury, violence against the person without injury, stalking, harassment, criminal damage, arson, other etc.)? As before, I only want this to take into account disability-related hate crimes and I would also like this data at a daily level. However, if that is not possible, then I would still like the first half of the request.

Our response:
