Dear XXXXX,

I write in connection with your request for information dated 13th June 2024 concerning public order trained tactical cyclists.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, research was conducted by Learning and Development at Wiltshire Police.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows.

You wrote:

Question 1 How many Level 2 public order trained tactical cyclists do you have in your force?

Question 2 How many Level 3 public order trained tactical cyclists do you have in your force?

Question 3 How many bicycles do you have specifically for public order tactical cycling?

Our response:

The answer to all questions is 0 (zero). Although we do use cycles on some operational, such as Solstice, we have no PO level 2 or level 3 trained tactical cyclists, and we have no bicycles specifically for PO tactical cyclists.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me and been considered in the light of your request within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.

Wiltshire Police would like to thank you for the interest that you have shown in the Force.
